

Money – neutral sector consist of central government. In spite of its position, liabilities of central government which have high degree of moneyness, held by money holding sector are included in monetary aggregates. Short description of entities including in this sector is in sector manual.